INSTRUCTIONS FOR METALLIC MINERALS SEVERANCE TAX

Schedule DR 0020A

Filing Requirements:

Every individual, corporation, business trust, partner in a partnership, association, estate, trust or any other legal entity liable for the payment of Colorado severance tax must file a severance tax return. This return must be made for the same tax year used for federal income tax purposes and is due on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of the taxable year.

Controlled Group:

In case of a controlled group of corporations as defined in section 613A of the Internal Revenue Code or of a family (man, woman, and minor children) where more than one member of the group or family are subject to the severance tax, the tax must be jointly computed and the severance tax return must be jointly filed under the name of the principal taxpaying corporation, the married couple or the single adult. Form DR 0021AS, available upon request from the Department of Revenue, must be attached in the case of a controlled group of corporations.

Metallic Minerals Defined:

Metallic minerals means all minerals except molybdenum, oil and gas, carbon dioxide, coal, oil shale, rock, gravel, stone products, earths, limestone, and dolomite. Minerals associated with molybdenum and oil shale production are not excluded from the definition of metallic minerals.

Taxpayer:

The tax is levied against every mining operation engaged in the severance of metallic minerals.

Tax:

The tax is 2.25% of the gross income from the mining operations in excess of $19,000,000 per year. The $19,000,000 exemption need not be prorated for a taxable period of less than twelve months.

Gross Income:

Gross income means the value of the one immediately after its removal from the mine, and does not include any value added subsequent to mining by any treatment processes, such as crushing, grinding or concentration, by transportation from the mine, or by marketing of such ore or any products derived therefrom.

Income from the extraction or processing of ores or minerals from mine waste or residue of previously processed ores is not subject to tax. Ores that are processed and abandoned and subsequently reclaimed by an unrelated economic interest shall be generally considered as waste or residue.

The tax applies to the value of the ore at the time it is severed, not to the sale of the ore. Ore severed during a year is taxed for that year even if it remains unsold at the end of the year.

Ad Valorem Tax:

The ad valorem tax must be reported on the same basis (accrual or cash) used for filing federal income tax returns. For the accrual basis taxpayer, the accrual/assessment date is the date the actual amount of the ad valorem tax is determined based upon the mill levy set by the counties. For the cash basis filer, the ad valorem tax is paid when it is actually paid to the county assessor.

Impact Assistance Credit:

A credit against the severance tax is allowed with respect to contributions of property or money to units of local government for the amount of the credit must be certified by the Executive Director of the Department of Local Affairs.

Estimated Tax:

Every corporation subject to Colorado severance tax must file a declaration of estimated tax, Form DR 0021PA, if its severance tax liability for the current tax year can reasonably be expected to exceed its Colorado severance tax credits by $5,000 or more.

Interest and Penalty:

If the return is filed after the due date, interest at the current statutory rate is due on any balance of tax due until paid. A penalty of the larger of $30.00 or 30% of the balance of tax due is due on any delinquent filed return. A corporation that underpays its estimated tax may owe an estimated tax penalty.

Direct Deposit:

The Department can deposit your refund directly into your account at a U.S. bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm, or credit union) in the United States. Go to the Tax Information Index at www.TaxColorado.com for additional information.

Extension of Time for Filing:

An automatic six month extension of time for filing the severance tax return is allowed. This is an extension of time for filing your severance tax return, not an extension of time for paying your tax. If you owe additional tax, use form DR 0021SA to submit an extension payment.

Amended Return:

If you find it necessary to amend your Colorado severance tax return, you are required to file Form DR 0020AX from the Department of Revenue.

Information:

Forms and additional information can be accessed on the Internet at www.TaxColorado.com or by telephone at (303) 238-SERV (7378).
